ANNUAL MEETING
On-Site Program

Meeting Director
Phillip R. Langsdon, MD

Program Chairs
Rami K. Batniji, MD
Samuel M. Lam, MD
When is a filler not an injectable?

To look youthful, an aging face needs volume in the right places. This means envisioning your outcome, and then using appropriate skills and material to make it happen.

Frequently, however, a licensed clinician simply injects the patient with filler. The material is eventually absorbed – sometimes unevenly – and injections must be repeated.

However, with your surgical skills, you can give your patients a permanent, symmetrical solution that looks and feels more like natural bone structure. One that’s an excellent foundation for face lifts or wrinkle removal.

Choose Conform™ facial implants as the ideal midfacial filler, or select from assorted chin implants for an attractive jaw line. Your patients will enjoy the lasting aesthetics – your practice will enjoy the loyalty and referrals.

Benefit from your surgical edge.

Come say “Hello” at Booth 401
FREE Rewards points, plus our latest innovations for great patient outcomes!
We listened to you! And we are excited to present you with a newly formatted Annual Meeting. We have radically redesigned the program as follows:

- Comprehensive topic-focused tracks
- Three days of thought-provoking, surgical facial rejuvenation, facial reconstructive surgery, business/practice management, office staff program, and one day of emerging trends and minimally invasive techniques
- Many brand new speakers from across the world
- Elimination and reduction on non-educational content

We created four principal rooms organized clearly—all of which are situated in close proximity. This way, you can easily find the lecture that suits your educational needs and change rooms if you so desire without a lot of travel time.

We have gathered many new speakers, some world-wide experts; we have also included some of our talented but less frequent speakers who are now the centerpiece of the program.

We have streamlined content to enhance your educational experience. We eliminated the instructional courses and organized the entire program according to themes. We reduced redundant talks, while creating focused lecture sessions, containing lots of facts, new technology, and emerging trends.

We have worked tirelessly to structure a beneficial program that is all-inclusive and maximizes the use of time.

Whether you have attended an AAFPRS Annual Meeting, this year will set the new standard for meetings. We hope you enjoy your time here in Nashville—it is a perfect venue for what promises to be an unforgettable educational experience.

This past year as president has been exceptionally fulfilling for me. I’ve worked tirelessly to ensure that our EVP/CEO Stephen C. Duffy, who has recently retired, is replaced with an equally qualified and highly-credible individual. I am happy to report that Steven J. Jurich fits the bill. Both “Steve” will be present at the meeting; please wish Steve Duffy well and warmly welcome the Steve Jurich.

I am excited to be here in Nashville and can’t wait to see you all. Thank you for being here and for supporting our meeting.

This year’s guest country is Turkey. The AAFPRS welcomes our special guests from turkey! Turkish physicians traveling from Turkey receive $100 off the price of their registration.

It is with great honor and pleasure that I welcome you all to our Annual Fall Meeting. Our program chairs, Sam Lam, MD and Ramzi Batniji, MD—under the guidance of meeting director Phil Langsdon, MD—have put together an impressive program with a different format and twist. Focused tracks, new speakers, elimination of redundancy, and the presentation of new topics—all prepared thoughtfully, after hearing what you want out of an AAFPRS Annual Meeting. I am proud to be president at this time and to witness this new format unfold.

I would like to welcome our invited speakers to our meeting. We will surely be enlightened by Dr. Sahar Saleem’s talk on “Pharaoh’s Special Beauty Treatment for the Next World.” We will be challenged by Andy Bailey’s talk on how to prioritize and get things done. We will be inspired by Craig Havighurst’s lecture on the art of listening. And finally, we will be enthused by our very own Mary Lynn Moran, MD as she addresses a crowd during the Women in Plastic Surgery Luncheon.

We welcome our special guests from Turkey and we thank the American Society of Plastic Surgeons for endorsing our meeting. We are always very appreciative of our local exhibitors who come and support our exhibition year after year. I encourage all of you to visit the Exhibit Hall frequently. We will have drawings during breaks; you could be a lucky winner of some great prizes donated by the exhibitors themselves. I would also like to draw attention to our sponsors who have made generous contributions to support our meeting and our cause. They are listed on page 32 of this program.

This year’s AAFPRS Annual Meeting is endorsed by the American Society of Plastic Surgeons.

The AAFPRS Foundation wishes to thank Daiichi Sankyo for their sponsorship of the Annual Meeting app and the registration kiosks.

Room 201AB
The American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery (AAFPRS) is an international medical specialty society representing more than 3,000 facial plastic and reconstructive surgeons throughout the world. The AAFPRS is a National Medical Specialty Society of the American Medical Association (AMA). The AAFPRS holds an annual meeting in the AMA House of Delegates and on the American College of Surgeons board of governors.

It's History

In 1974, the Educational and Research Foundation for the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery (AAFPRS Foundation) was created to address the medical and scientific issues and challenges which confront facial plastic surgeons.

The AAFPRS Foundation established a proactive research program and educational resources for leaders in facial plastic surgery. Through courses, workshops, and other scientific presentations, as well as a highly respected fellowship training program, the AAFPRS Foundation has consistently provided quality educational programs for the dissemination of knowledge and information among facial plastic surgeons.

About the AAFPRS

In the early 1990s, FACE TO FACE humanitarian programs were established so that AAFPRS members could use their skills and share their talent in helping the less fortunate individuals here and abroad.

• FACE TO FACE: International brings AAFPRS members to 22 countries where they treat children with facial birth defects and anomalies.

• FACE TO FACE: The National Domestic Violence Project allows AAFPRS members to perform surgeries on survivors of domestic abuse here in the United States, who have received injuries to their faces.

• The newest member to FACE TO FACE is Faces of Honor. This program offers free surgical care for soldiers who have been injured in the line of duty.

About the AAFPRS Foundation

The AAFPRS Foundation is a nonprofit organization established to support the mission of the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery (AAFPRS). The Foundation receives contributions from members, industry partners, and the general public to fund research, educational programs, and humanitarian initiatives.

The AAFPRS Foundation has a Board of Directors and a set of bylaws that govern its operations. The Board is composed of elected and appointed members who are dedicated to advancing the mission of the AAFPRS Foundation.

Recent highlights of the AAFPRS Foundation include the establishment of the AAFPRS Research Center and the introduction of the AAFPRS Fellowship Program.

Affiliated with the AAFPRS Foundation is the AAFPRS Research Center, which provides funding for research projects that advance the field of facial plastic and reconstructive surgery. The AAFPRS Fellowship Program provides opportunities for young physicians to gain experience in facial plastic and reconstructive surgery under the guidance of experienced mentors.

The AAFPRS Foundation is proud to continue its commitment to supporting excellence in facial plastic and reconstructive surgery through its various initiatives and programs.

MTF has designed the new pre-shaped allograft alternative for rhinoplasty you’ve been waiting for...

For Dorsal Augmentation

Now arcing and consistent graft quality make Profile an ideal dorsal on-lay graft

For Revision Rhinoplasty

Profile is available in three sizes for use as columnar struts, spreader grafts, and other nose-shaping grafts

Unlike autograft, Profile requires no secondary surgery site and only minimal intra-operative manipulation, so there’s less pain and scarring for your patients and less OR time for you.

When it comes to choosing the ideal grafting material for your rhinoplasty procedures, the obvious choice is the new choice: Profile Costal Cartilage Allograft.

Improving Patient Care During Short-term Opioid Therapy: Focusing on Nausea and Vomiting

Join us at AAFPRS in Nashville for a presentation led by an expert facial plastic and reconstructive surgeon, as we take an in-depth look into one of the most common and burdensome side effects of opioid therapy, opioid-induced nausea and vomiting (OINV), and other common types of nausea and vomiting in the surgical setting. The speaker will review the current understanding of the mechanisms of OINV, the impact of nausea and vomiting on patient experience and satisfaction and on the healthcare system, and management approaches in current practice. The speaker will also discuss ways to improve care and satisfaction in patients who receive short-term opioids for postoperative pain management.

We also invite you to visit the Daiichi Sankyo Exhibit Booth 201 where you can:

- Create customized patient education materials about opioid-induced nausea and vomiting (OINV)
- Pick up a brochure that illustrates the prevalence, severity, and unpredictability of OINV
- Watch our “OINever Knew” video, which highlights the dichotomy between doctor and patient views of OINV
- Interact with our “Guess Who” learning experience to see if you can guess which patient may experience OINV
